1939. U.S.S.R.: KM-MS6, 9-coin set, 1966, SET of 9 uncirculated specimens, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, in the original cellophane wrapper $300 - 400

This set is valued at $575 in the latest KM catalog of the 20th century, and it remains one of the rarest of the Soviet mint sets.

1940. U.S.S.R.: KM-MS8, LOT of 7 sets, each the 1967 five-coin set of uncirculated specimens, including 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, plus the Leningrad Mint token, special commemorative series for the 50th Anniversary of the Great October Socialist Revolution, lot of 7 identical sets $80 - 100

Each set in an envelope of the Moravia Trading Co. in Brooklandville, Maryland.

1941. U.S.S.R.: KM-MS10, 9-coin set, 1969, prooflike specimens, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, each in a stiff postal card with a different 1968-dated 6 kopeck commemorative stamp, each cancelled on "25269", i.e., 25 February 1969 $160 - 200

The original set, in cellophane wrapping, is listed by KM at $375. This and following two sets were repackaged in stamped covers produced in the United States for the collector market. These numismatic/philatelic sets seems to be much rarer than the official cellophane set, and the only one we have seen offered in recent years fetched $340 in our Auction 19 last year. The packaging bears the US patent number 3371851, which was requested in 1968 by 99 Coin Company, San Clemente, California, owned by John Baker, inventor of the PNC, "Philatelic Numismatic Cover", which he founded in 1964.

1942. U.S.S.R.: KM-MS10, 9-coin set, 1969, SET of 9 prooflike specimens, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, each in a stiff postal card with a different 1968-dated 6 kopeck commemorative stamp, each cancelled on "25269", i.e., 25 February 1969 $160 - 200

1943. U.S.S.R.: KM-MS10, 9-coin set, 1969, SET of 9 prooflike specimens, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, each in a stiff postal card with a different 1968-dated 6 kopeck commemorative stamp, each cancelled on "25269", i.e., 25 February 1969 $160 - 200

1944. U.S.S.R.: Lot of 6 annual mint sets, each of 9 uncirculated specimens, including 1, 2, 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 50 kopecks, and 1 rouble, in the original plastic box, dated 1974, 1975, 1976, 1977, 1978 and 1989. All are in excellent condition, except for the common 1989 set, which has several pieces corroded and is thus of little value; plus the 7-coin set of 1962 in original cellophane wrapper, a "Coins of All Nations" 20 kopeck 1978 in stamped envelope (by the Franklin Mint), and a partial 1961 set in original packaging (missing 3, 5 and 15 kopeck), retail value of $600, lot of 9 items $300 - 400

1986. ECUADOR: AR ½ real (1.15g), Quito, 1833, KM-12.1, assayer
GJ (Guillermo Jameson), denomination "MoR" (Medio Real), some light scratches in the field, excellent strike, EF, RR $700 - 800

1987. ECUADOR: 2 sucres, 1973, KM-82, never released for circulation, with allegedly 35 pieces having survived, but it is now believed the surviving quantity is slightly higher, BU $225 - 300 1988. ECUADOR: SET of 2 coins, types KM-82 (2 sucres, 1973,
NGC graded MS-64) and KM-84 (5 sucres, 1973, NGC graded MS-63), together with the original case (for set #165) and Certificate of Authenticity (Certificado de Autenticidad), set of 2 pieces, RR $900 - 1,100

The surviving mintage for the 2 sucres piece has been proposed as 35, but it is likely that it is somewhat higher today. For the 5 sucres, Krause currently estimates about 50 pieces survive from a mintage of just 500. According to the Certificate of Authenticity (COA), the Central Bank of Ecuador limited the number of authenticated sets to 200, but these are obviously much rarer. Only one set, with case and COA, has appeared at auction in recent years, also with original case and documents, sold for $850 by Heritage in the CICF Signature Sale (April 2012), Lot 24221.

1989. GUATEMALA: AR 8 reales, ND (1839), KM-102, countermarked
