Darley-Doran cited only a silver dirham of the year 341 (page 132), and cited the existence of dinars of 'Umar b. Yusuf dated 345 and 347. No gold coinage of 'Umar b. Yusuf is recorded on CoinArchives (and only three silver dirhams, dated 340, 342 and 343).

The actual issuer of this type has never been confirmed. The month of Shawwal 618 falls within the Mongol invasion of the region, and it is likely that this type was authorized either by the invading Mongols or the local authorities under siege. The phrase al-mulku lillah ("the kingship belongs to God") on the obverse suggests this hypothesis.

The mint name is clear, the date blundered as usual, intended for either AH658 or 659.

560. ZANGIDS OF AL-MAWSIL: Ghazi II, 1169-1180, AE dirham (11.67g), NM, AH666, A-1861.1, very well-centered, VF $110 - 150

561. LU'LU'IDS: Rukn al-Din Isma'il, 1258-1261, AR dirham (2.99g), al-Mawsil, AH6xx, A-1878, also citing the Mamluk ruler al-Zahir Baybars I as nominal overlord, in a failed campaign against the Ilkhans; proper Ilkhan coinage began at al-Mawsil later in AH660, VF, RRR $300 - 400

562. ZANGIDS OF AL-JAZIRA: Sanjarshah, 1180-1208, AE wuqiya ("ounce") (33.14g), al-Jazira, AH6xx, A-A1883, nice strike, VF, R $180 - 220

563. SALDUQIDS: Diya' al-Din Ghazi, 1116-1132, AE fals (2.74g), NM, ND, A-A1890, cf. Zeno-180546, the obverse is derived from a Byzantine prototype, portraying the Virgin and Christ-child, with the ruler's name and the Seljuq overlord (only part of the word sultan visible) on the reverse, crudely struck, Fine, RRR $150 - 200

564. SALDUQIDS: Diya' al-Din Ghazi, 1116-1132, AE fals (4.74g), NM, ND, A-C1890, St. George slaying the dragon, stylistically engraved, citing the Seluq overlord Mahmud II (only by the laqab mughith al-din), VF, RRR $200 - 300

Interesting variety, with St. George on horseback, holding a long cross in his right hand, and his weapon in the left hand, not yet aimed for the dragon, which is crudely represented below the horse. All and all, this is the finest example we have seen for this extremely rare and always poorly struck type.

565. SALDUQIDS: Nasir al-Dawla Ghazi, 1132-1145, AE fals (3.49g), NM, ND, A-B1890, standing figure holding long cross and diadem, with cornucopiae in background, possibly citing the Seljuq ruler Mas'ud, some weakness near the rim, VF, RRR $200 - 300

568. SALDUQIDS: 'Izz al-Din Salduq, 1129-1168, AE fals (5.83g), NM, ND, A-1890, two standing figures, right figure (St. Demetrius?) passing the patriarchal cross to the royal figure, Fine $110 - 150

569. SALDUQIDS: 'Izz al-Din Salduq, 1129-1168, AE fals (4.47g), NM, ND, A-1890A, 'izz al-din in central circle, traces of Arabic legend in the margin // cross pattée, with 3 pellets at end of each arm, triple border of circles around, the inner circle dotted, unusually nice example of this type, F-VF, RR $200 - 250

A. V. Akopyan has suggested that this type was minted at Dvin in Armenia, which was under Salduqid control circa 1153-1160. See Zeno-30762 for further information.

570. SALDUQIDS: Nasir al-Din Muhammad, 1168-1191, AE fals (4.61g), NM, ND, A-1891, mounted archer shooting arrow at small animal (gazelle?); extremely rare variety with a flying bird in lieu of the abjad date, VF, RRR $200 - 250

A possibly unique coins of the Assassins

Unpublished and perhaps unique, early style, totally different from the later fractional coins of Muhammad III (A-1921A though 1921E), all of which are calligraphically similar, likely all struck from the late AH640s until his demise in AH656.

572. SALGHURID: Abu Bakr, 1231-1260, pale AV dinar (3.73g), NM, ND, A-A1928.1, citing the Abbasid caliph al-Musta'sim, thus struck no later than AH656, EF, RRR $250 - 350

573. SALGHURID: Abu Bakr, 1231-1260, pale AV dinar (2.51g), NM, ND, A-A1928.1, without the caliph, citing both Mōngke and Hulagu, ruler's name partly visible below the kalima, but absolutely certain, EF, RRR $250 - 350

Type A-A1928 has now been divided into three subtypes: A-A1928.1, pale gold, with the dynastic tamgha, the title atabeg, and the caliph al-Musta'sim; A-A1928.2, fine gold, citing the Great Mongol Mōngke, but without both the caliph and the Ilkhan ruler (probably issued to commemorate the Mongol victory); and A-1928.3, once again, standard pale gold, citing both Mōngke and the Ilkhan Hulagu.

574. QALHATI AMIR: Muhammad, 1521-1534, AR "dirham" (1.20g), Jarun, AH932, A-1944D, obverse al-sultan / muhammad shah, reverse darb / jarun / sana / 932, all within square, VG, RRR $90 - 110

First reported silver coin in the name of this Qalhati amir, previously known only for gold.

577. GREAT MONGOLS: temp. Chingiz Khan, 1206-1227, AE jital (4.24g), Qunduz, ND, A-1972, Rajput horseman // bow-and-arrow motif within hexafoil, clear mint name, VF $120 - 160

578. GREAT MONGOLS: temp. Chingiz Khan, 1206-1227, AE jital (3.22g), Qunduz, ND, A—, Tye—, kalima in square (probably with the mint name repeated above) // caliph's name al-nasir / li-din Allah in central square, mint formula in margin, showing the mint name clearly but the following date off flan (most likely undated), appears to be unpublished, VF, RRR $150 - 250

Very likely struck at some point during the late 610s or early 620s, thus within the lifetime of Chingiz Khan.

579. GREAT MONGOLS: Anonymous, ca. 1220s-1230s, AV dinar (5.09g), Badakhshan, ND, A-A1967, Zeno-90274 (same dies), citing the caliph al-Nasir li-din Allah on the obverse, the kalima on reverse, mint name partially legible atop the reverse, almost completely legible in the obverse margin, VF-EF, RR $500 - 600

582. GREAT MONGOLS: Anonymous, ca. 1225-1250, AR dirham (1.54g), Jand, ND, A-3517J, kalima, number "6" above // name of caliph al-Nasir, mint name above; to be listed in the 4th edition of the Checklist of Islamic Coins, about 35% flat strike, AU, RRR $200 - 250

Local issue of Jand (now in Kazakhstan), first discovered in the 1970s and published by V.N. Nastich in 1981, but until 2016, none have been offered on the market. The 2 pieces in this auction are the last available from the recent hoard.

Local issue of Jand (now in Kazakhstan), first discovered in the 1970s and published by V.N. Nastich in 1981, but until 2016, none have been offered on the market. The 2 pieces in this auction are the last available from the recent hoard.

584. GREAT MONGOLS: Ögedei, 1227-1241, AR dirham (1.95g), Baylaqân, ND, A-1973.1, mint name followed by 'amaraha Allah, "may God protect it", a remarkably ironic statement just after the Mongol invasions, extremely rare mint, Fine, RRR $200 - 300

585. GREAT MONGOLS: Möngke, 1251-1260, AE jital (3.21g), NM, ND, A-1978, be-qovvat-e aferidegir-e alam // only the tamgha of Möngke, with original silver-wash, VF-EF, RR $110 - 150

588. GREAT MONGOLS: Anonymous, AE jital (3.10g), Kurraman, ND, A-1978P, Tye-359, single word panji on obverse, fi balad kurraman on reverse, VF, R $90 - 110

589. GREAT MONGOLS: Anonymous, AR dirham (2.02g), Badakhshan, ND/DM, A-3779N, qa'an / al-'adil / sikka in obverse center, date formula in margin (or undated) // kalima in center, mint name in margin in the legend including the local governor, dawlatshah bin 'ali shah badakh(shan) plus a couple more uncertain words off flan, crinkled, VF, RRR $200 - 250

It seems possibly that the cited Dawlatshah b. Ali is the same shah who issued coins dated AH690-693, but the overall style is totally different, and presumably much earlier, suggesting that Dawlatshah may have ruled for quite a long time, or that there were two different rulers in Badakhshan each with the name Dawlatshah, one several decades earlier than the other. Two specimens sold in Stephen Album Auction 29, lots 405 and 406, for $650 and $600, respectively.

590. GREAT MONGOLS: Anonymous, AE jital (2.00g), Kurraman, ND, A-1978—, Tye-361, nisf panja in circle-in-square // darb multan in square, choice VF $100 - 150

598. CHAGHATAYID KHANS: Chapar, ca. 1307-1310, AR dirham (1.65g), NM, ND, A-K1987, Zeno-26339 (this piece), rebel in Kashghar, countermarked with the S-tamgha of Qaidu on both sides (strong on one side, weak on the other), host coin undetermined, its convex octagon border on its reverse does not match any of the illustrated pieces on Zeno, F-VF, RR $120 - 160

599. CHAGHATAYID KHANS: Changshi, 1333-1336, AR dinar (7.69g), Badakhshan, AH(7)37, A-1997, Zeno-122422 (same reverse die), VF, RR $150 - 200
