This Qur'an verse admonishes those who hoard gold and silver without spending it in a godly manner, first used on the multiple dirhams of the Samanids and their rivals in the late 4th/10th century. Struck only at Tetuan in 1195, either on a broad flan of about 39mm or a narrow and thicker flan of about 32-34mm, of equal rarity. Both this type and A-591 and A-592 probably failed because they weighed about 8% more than the already circulating Spanish-American 8 real silver coins and were just melted down by merchants.

Ottoman Empire

Early Ottoman Empire

318. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Mehmet II, 1451-1481, AV sultani (3.50g), Kostantiniye, AH882, A-1306, excellent strike, as always for this type, EF $2,400 - 3,000

The year 882 is much rarer than 883 - there are about 8 times as many dated 883 as 882 on CoinArchives. This is the first Islamic coin to bear the phrase "darib al-nadr wa sahib al-izz al-nasr fi'l-birr wa'l-bahr", "the striker of precious metal, and master of glory, the victorious on land and sea", a reference to the Ottoman expansion on both the European and Asian sides of the Bosphorus.

319. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Selim I, 1512-1520, AV sultani (3.48g), Mawsil (Mosul), AH922, A-1314, Damali-MU-A1-922, bold strike, choice VF-EF, RRR $2,000 - 2,500

The only example of the Mawsil mint for Selim I recorded on CoinArchives was sold in our Auction 35, but this piece is far superior. Mawsil was conquered by the Ottomans from the Safavids, under the command of Biyikli Mehmed Pasha, during the year AH922.

320. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Selim I, 1512-1520, AV sultani (3.49g), Kostantiniye, AH918, A-1314, very slightly uneven surfaces, full strike, VF, R $600 - 700

321. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Süleyman I, 1520-1566, AV sultani (3.44g), Zabid, AH948, A-1317, bold strike, well-centered, rare Yemeni mint, lovely EF, R $1,300 - 1,600

Zabid was the only mint during the reign of Süleyman I that struck all gold coinage with the actual date rather than the accession date (silver of Zabid with actual date until AH956, thereafter with the accession date 926).

322. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Süleyman I, 1520-1566, AV sultani (3.53g), Misr, AH926, A-1317, off-center strike, EF $200 - 240

327. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Murad III, 1574-1595, AV sultani (3.46g), Sidreqapsi, AH982, A-1332.1, about 10% flat strike, VF, ex Jim Farr Collection $180 - 220

The date is somewhat ambiguous, sometimes interpreted as 1013, which was after the death of Mehmet III, sometimes as 1003. Both 1003 and 1008 are reasonable, but it seems more like 1008.

329. OTTOMAN EMPIRE: Mehmet III, 1595-1603, AV sultani (3.48g), Canca (Janja), AH1003, A-1340.2, sultan al-birrayn ... series, nice strike with just one minor spot of weakness, scalloped borders around both sides, EF $400 - 500
